

01 SMALL TALK

What snack do you really like these days?

Do you enjoy food festivals or street markets?

What did you eat for lunch or breakfast today?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"The food is very delicious."~~

✓ "The food is really good."

*delicious 자체가 '아주 맛있다'라 very를 붙이면 어색해요. 강조하려면 really good이 자연스러워요.*2 ~~"Let me service this to you."~~

✓ "This one's on the house."

*'서비스 = 공짜'는 콩글리시예요. 공짜로 준다는 뜻은 on the house를 써요.*3 ~~"I want to eat lunch outside."~~

✓ "I want to eat out for lunch."

eat outside는 '야외에서 먹다'예요. '외식하다'는 eat out이 맞아요.

Food Festival Strategy — Proven Local Spot or New Booth?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

푸드축제에 가면 성향이 꽤 빨리 드러나요. 줄이 긴 검증된 맛집을 따라 갈지, 처음 보는 부스를 도전할지, 익숙한 메뉴를 먹을지 새로운 메뉴를 고를지에서 기준이 갈려요. 줄이 긴 곳은 이유가 있을 것 같지만, 축제까지 가서 이미 아는 맛만 먹으면 아쉬울 수 있어요. 반대로 모르는 부스에 도전했다가 실패하면 시간과 배가 아깝게 느껴질 수도 있죠. 그래서 푸드축제는 맛, 가격, 웨이팅, 모험심, 같이 간 사람의 취향이 한 번에 섞이는 주제예요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Food festivals show people's decision styles quickly. Some people trust the longest line because it feels proven. Others want to try the unknown booth because a festival should feel different from a normal meal. Both choices make sense. A famous local spot may be safe, but eating only familiar food can feel boring. A new booth may be exciting, but a bad choice can feel like wasted time, money, and stomach space. The real question is how much risk people want in a casual food plan. Food talk usually starts with taste, but the real decision often includes price, waiting time, portion size, mood, and who is eating together. The same food can feel worth it to one person and a waste to another, because the situation changes what people expect.
