

01 SMALL TALK

Do you like your YouTube recommendations, or are they a little embarrassing?

When was the last time you let someone hold your phone?

Do you watch different things when you are alone?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"I have a some on going."~~

✓ "I'm kind of seeing someone."

"썸(some)"은 콩글리시예요. 영어엔 그 단어가 없어서 'kind of seeing someone'으로 풀어 써요.

2 ~~"He gave me a big impression."~~

✓ "He made a big impression on me."

'make an impression on someone'이 고정 표현이에요. give 대신 make나 leave를 써요.

3 ~~"We meeting for 3 months."~~

✓ "We've been seeing each other for 3 months."

be동사도 빠지고 시제도 틀렸어요. 지금까지 이어지는 기간은 have been -ing(현재완료진행)로 표현해요.

03 오늘의 워업

각 라운드 손가락으로 A 또는 B. 한 라운드마다 한 명 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Would You Rather (5분)

1

Show your partner your Instagram explore page

VS

Show your partner your YouTube recommendations

2

Let your partner scroll your feed freely for 5 minutes

VS

Show only the screen you choose

3

Your partner sees every video you secretly laugh at

VS

Keep a few favorites just for yourself

4

Date someone with almost the same algorithm as you

VS

Date someone with a totally different algorithm

Showing Your Algorithm to a Partner — Trust or Private Space?

BACKGROUND

연인에게 인스타그램 탭이나 유튜브 추천 알고리즘을 보여주는 건 휴대폰 비밀번호를 알려주는 것과는 다른 종류의 사생활이에요. 알고리즘에는 내가 자주 보는 영상, 궁금해하는 것, 혼자 웃는 취향, 말로 설명하기 애매한 관심사가 섞여 있어요. 어떤 사람에게는 보여줘도 별일 아닌 화면이지만, 어떤 사람에게는 머릿속 취향을 들키는 느낌일 수 있죠. 친밀함은 모든 것을 공개하는 게 아니라, 상대가 어디까지 편한지 존중하는 데서 생겨요.

READ BEFORE WE TALK

Showing a partner your recommendation feed can feel surprisingly personal. It is not a password or a private message, but it shows your habits: what you watch late at night, what you find funny, and what you keep searching. Some people show it easily and laugh together. Others feel exposed, because the feed shows small parts of who they are that are hard to explain. Trust does not always mean showing every screen. It can also mean accepting that people have private corners, even in a close relationship. The line depends on comfort, not only on suspicion.

WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

it knows too much about me — (앱이) 나에게 대해 너무 많이 안다

scroll fast past it — 빨리 넘겨 버리다

I'm an open book — 나는 다 오픈된 사람이다

draw the line — 선을 긋다 out of context — 맥락 없이 보면

give someone the benefit of the doubt — (나쁘게 말고) 좋게 봐 주다

TRY THESE PHRASES

I'd say yes, mostly because ____.

Honestly, I wouldn't mind ____.

The way I see it, ____.

It really comes down to ____.

EASY ENTRY

- 1 What's your usual move when someone peeks at your phone while your YouTube feed is open — keep scrolling, or quietly switch the screen?
- 2 On a scale of 1 to 5, how well does your YouTube or Instagram algorithm actually know you?
- 3 Are you more of a 'let the algorithm run wild' person or a 'curate my feed carefully' person?
- 4 When was the last time your feed recommended something that made you think, 'How did it know that?'

MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. Would you show your partner your YouTube or Instagram feed? Why or why not?

I'd say yes, mostly because ____.

Honestly, I wouldn't mind ____.

Q2. Why can a recommendation feed feel more private than your photos?

The way I see it, ____.

It really comes down to ____.

Q3. If your partner says no to showing their feed, does it mean they are hiding something?

Not necessarily ____.

In my case, ____ doesn't mean ____.

Q4. Where would you draw the line — your feed, your search history, or your private messages?

I'd happily share ____, but ____ is where I draw the line.

It depends on what it is, but usually ____.

Q5. Can a couple laugh about each other's weird feeds without judging?

Definitely, as long as ____.

When there's enough trust, ____.