02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"I want to save my money for future."~~

✓ "I want to save up for the future."

일반적 의미라 my는 빼고, future 앞에 the가 필요해요. save up이 더 자연스러워요.

2 ~~"The price is too expensive."~~

✓ "It is too expensive. / The price is too high."

expensive는 물건에, price는 high/low로 표현해요.

3 ~~"I spend money to shopping."~~ spend money on + 명사/-ing가 고정 패턴이에요. to는 안 돼요.

Small Lifestyle Details — Worth the Mood or Unnecessary Spending?

BACKGROUND

향, 조명, 작은 가전처럼 생활의 분위기를 바꾸는 디테일은 꼭 필요한 물건은 아니지만 삶의 만족감을 올려줄 수 있어요. 누군가에게는 불필요한 소비처럼 보이고, 누군가에게는 집에 돌아왔을 때 기분을 바꿔주는 중요한 장치가 되죠. 큰돈은 아니어도 반복해서 사면 생활비가 되고, 잘 고르면 매일 쓰는 작은 행복이 될 수 있어요. 사소한 디테일에 어디까지 돈을 써도 되는지가 기준이에요.

READ BEFORE WE TALK

Small lifestyle details are easy to ignore until they change how a space feels. A candle, lamp, speaker, humidifier, diffuser, or small kitchen appliance may not be essential, but it can make home feel calmer, cleaner, or more personal. Some people see these purchases as mood upgrades that improve everyday life. Others see them as unnecessary spending dressed up as taste. The cost may be small one by one, but the habit can become real. The question is whether the item changes your daily routine enough to matter, or whether it only creates a short moment of excitement after buying. Value-based shopping is not only about finding the lowest price. Delivery speed, return policies, brand trust, design, reviews, and the feeling of using something for a long time all affect whether a purchase feels smart. Two people can buy the same item for completely different reasons.
