

01 SMALL TALK

When you want to learn something new, do you buy a book or download an app first?

Do you keep any small habit every day, like drinking water or checking the weather?

When was the last time you said, I will start tomorrow?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"My company is very welfare."~~

✓ "My company has great benefits."

welfare는 명사라 형용사처럼 못 써요. 회사 복지는 benefits나 perks로 표현해요.

② ~~"I want to develop myself."~~

✓ "I want to grow."

develop myself는 직역 느낌이라 어색해요. 사람은 grow/improve, 능력은 develop my skills가 자연스러워요.

③ ~~"I resigned my job."~~

✓ "I quit my job."

resign은 목적어를 바로 못 받아요. resign from my job 또는 캐주얼하게 quit my job을 써요.

Adult English Motivation — Routine or Another False Start?

 BACKGROUND

어른이 되어 영어 공부를 다시 시작하면 처음보다 유지가 더 어려울 때가 많아요. 책을 사고 앱을 깔고 결심하는 건 쉽지만, 야근이나 약속이 생기면 금방 밀리기 때문이에요. 동기를 오래 유지하려면 큰 목표보다 자주 성공할 수 있는 작은 루틴이 필요해요. 영어 공부는 의지의 문제가 아니라, 생활 안에 얼마나 자연스럽게 들어오는지의 문제에 가까워요.

 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Adult English study often fails not because people lose interest, but because life gets in the way. Buying a book, downloading an app, or setting a big goal feels exciting at first. Then work, family, tiredness, and plans with friends make the plan fade away. Motivation alone is too weak for long-term learning. A better system creates small wins: ten minutes of speaking, one useful phrase, a weekly class, or a real conversation goal. Adult learners also need a reason that connects to life, like travel, work, confidence, or friendships. English improves when it becomes a normal part of the week instead of another dramatic restart.

 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

- stick to it — 꾸준히 계속하다
- give up halfway — 중간에 포기하다
- start small — 작게 시작하다
- make time for it — 시간을 내다
- get back into it — 다시 시작하다
- a little every day — 매일 조금씩

 TRY THESE PHRASES

- Honestly, the main reason is ___ — and after that I just stop.
- Most of the time, ___ gets in the way, so I give up.
- I lean more toward ___ because ___ doesn't last for me.
- It really comes down to ___ in my daily life.

 EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'buy-the-book' starter or a 'download-the-app' starter when you decide to study English again?
- 2 When was the last time you started learning English again — and what pushed you to start?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick one to keep English going: a daily app, a weekly tutor, or a study buddy?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you actually open that English app you downloaded?

 MAIN DISCUSSION

- Q1. What usually makes your English study stop after a strong start?

↳ Honestly, the main reason is ___ — and after that I just stop.

↳ Most of the time, ___ gets in the way, so I give up.
- Q2. Do you need motivation, a routine, or a real reason to keep studying? Which one works for you?

↳ I lean more toward ___ because ___ doesn't last for me.

↳ It really comes down to ___ in my daily life.
- Q3. Is it better to study a little every day or a lot once a week? Why?

↳ I'd say ___ is better because ___ becomes a habit.

↳ Compared to ___, studying ___ feels easier to keep.
- Q4. What would make English feel like part of your life instead of homework?

↳ What helps me is ___, so it doesn't feel like a task.

↳ If I could ___, then English would feel natural to me.
- Q5. When you stop and then start again, how do you deal with the guilt?

↳ The way I see it, stopping is normal, so ___.

↳ What works for me is ___ — I just start again quietly.
