

01 SMALL TALK

Do you usually practice what you'll say before an important call or meeting?

Do you get more nervous speaking in Korean or in English?

Before a big day, do you make a plan, or just go with the flow?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

- 1 ~~"When I present, my mind becomes white."~~
✓ "When I present, my mind goes blank."
'머리가 하얘지다'는 영어로 go blank예요. become white는 콩글리시예요.
- 2 ~~"I'm so tension before a presentation."~~
✓ "I'm so nervous before a presentation."
tension은 명사라 형용사처럼 못 써요. nervous나 tense를 쓰세요.
- 3 ~~"I will make a PPT for the meeting."~~
✓ "I'll make the slides for the meeting."
영어로는 PPT보다 slides나 a slide deck이 자연스러워요.

03 오늘의 워업

각 질문에 A 또는 B 손가락으로 표시. 마음에 드는 거 하나만 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Quick Choice (5분)

- 1 Before a presentation: A) practice many times, or B) just relax and go?
- 2 When you forget a word: A) keep going in English, or B) stop and check your notes?
- 3 Your slides: A) lots of text, or B) only a few key words?
- 4 After your talk: A) you want questions, or B) please, no questions?

English Presentations — Panic or Prepared Routine?

 BACKGROUND

영어 발표가 떨리는 이유는 영어 실력만의 문제가 아니에요. 사람들 앞에서 말해야 하고, 질문이 들어올 수 있고, 실수하면 바로 티가 날 것 같다는 압박이 함께 오기 때문이에요. 발표를 잘하려면 멋진 표현보다 구조, 연습, 첫 문장, 그리고 막혔을 때 자연스럽게 넘어가는 문장이 더 중요해요. 긴장을 완전히 없애는 것보다, 긴장해도 계속 말할 수 있게 준비하는 게 더 현실적인 전략이에요.

 READ BEFORE WE TALK

English presentations can feel scary because they mix two pressures: the language and the performance. The speaker has to organize ideas, speak clearly, manage the slides, watch the audience, and maybe answer questions. Even people with good English can panic when everyone is listening. Preparation helps most when it becomes a routine: a clear opening, a simple structure, practiced transitions, a few backup phrases, and a way to recover after a mistake. The goal is not to remove all nervousness. It is to stay strong enough to keep going while you are nervous. Confidence often comes from knowing what to do when the perfect sentence disappears.

 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

run through it — (발표를) 꼭 한번 연습해 보다

wing it — 즉흥으로 하다 my mind went blank — 머리가 하얘졌다

lose my train of thought — 무슨 말 하려 했는지 까먹다

lower the stakes — 부담을 낮추다

Let me come back to that — 그건 잠시 후에 다시 다룰게요

 TRY THESE PHRASES

Honestly, the scariest part for me is ___ — when ___, my ___ just ___.

It really comes down to ___, because ___ makes me ___ more than ___.

I like to open with something simple like '___'; so ___.

What helps me start calmly is ___, and then ___.

 EASY ENTRY

- 1 When was the last time you gave a presentation or spoke English in front of a group?
- 2 Are you more of a 'read-the-slides' presenter or a 'talk-and-gesture' presenter?
- 3 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you rehearse out loud before a presentation?
- 4 Quick — if you had to pick: present to just 3 people, a room of 30, or a video call with cameras off?

 MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. What makes English presentations most stressful for you — the eyes on you, making mistakes, or surprise questions?

↳ Honestly, the scariest part for me is ___ — when ___, my ___ just ___.

↳ It really comes down to ___, because ___ makes me ___ more than ___.

Q2. What first sentence would help you start a presentation calmly?

↳ I like to open with something simple like '___'; so ___.

↳ What helps me start calmly is ___, and then ___.

Q3. How much should you memorize before a presentation — everything, just keywords, or only the structure?

↳ It depends on ___, but usually I memorize ___ because ___.

↳ I lean more toward memorizing ___, since ___ feels ___ than ___.

Q4. What can you say when you lose your place or your mind goes blank in the middle?

↳ When my mind goes blank, I just say '___' to ___.

↳ The thing is, ___ — so I usually ___ until ___.

Q5. Would you rather use simple, clear English or impressive expressions in a presentation? Why?

↳ I'd rather use ___ because ___, even though ___.

↳ Compared to ___, ___ feels ___, so I choose ___.