

01 SMALL TALK

Do you like crowded places, or do you prefer quiet spots?

When was the last time you took a photo with someone?

In winter, do you go out at night, or do you stay home?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"Let's take a memory together."~~

✓ "Let's make a memory together."

추억은 make a memory예요. take a memory는 콩글리시. 사진은 take a photo.

2 ~~"There were so many peoples."~~

✓ "There were so many people."

people 자체가 이미 복수예요. peoples는 안 써요.

3 ~~"I was so fun at the festival."~~

✓ "I had so much fun at the festival."

재밌었다는 had fun이예요. I'm fun은 '나는 재밌는 사람'이라는 뜻이라 어색해요.

Busan Light Festivals — Make Memories or Avoid Crowds?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

가족이 해운대 빛축제 같은 행사를 가자고 하면, 추억을 만들고 싶은 마음과 사람 많은 곳을 피하고 싶은 마음이 부딪혀요. 특히 겨울밤 행사는 예쁘지만 춥고 붐비고 이동도 번거로울 수 있어요. 그래도 가족과 함께 찍은 사진이나 같이 걸은 기억은 나중에 꽤 오래 남죠. 문제는 행사 자체가 아니라, 그날 모두가 무리하지 않고 좋은 기분으로 돌아올 수 있는 동선과 기대치를 만드는 거예요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Going to a light festival with family can feel sweet and tiring at the same time. The lights, the photos, and the winter air can make a memory that an ordinary dinner can't. But the cold, the crowds, the parking, and everyone's different energy can turn a nice plan into stress. We often judge a family outing after it ends: did people feel cared for, or did they feel dragged around? The best plan may not be the biggest festival or the perfect photo spot. It may be the route that lets everyone enjoy enough — without losing their patience, warmth, or comfort. Family wishes can feel caring and heavy at the same time, and what feels important can be very different across generations.
