

01 SMALL TALK

How was your weekend? Did you go anywhere?

Do you like taking photos, or are you bad at it like me?

When you meet friends, do you prefer a café or a restaurant?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"I have a promise with my family this Sunday."~~

✓ "I have plans with my family this Sunday."

'약속'을 promise로 직역하면 어색해요. 만날 일정은 plans나 an appointment를 써요.

2 ~~"Sorry everyone, I'll go first."~~

✓ "Sorry everyone, I'm going to head out."

'먼저 갈게요'를 go first로 하면 경주에서 앞서가는 느낌이에요. head out / get going이 자연스러워요.

3 ~~"The restaurant gave us some service."~~

✓ "The restaurant gave us a free dish — it was on the house."

공짜로 주는 건 service가 아니라 free 또는 on the house라고 해요.

03 오늘의 워업

각 질문에 A 또는 B 손가락으로 표시. 마음에 드는 거 하나만 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Quick Choice (5분)

1 Family party: take a photo and leave early (A) or stay to the end (B)?

2 A long family event: join only the main part (A) or every program (B)?

3 What matters more: just being there for a moment (A) or spending real time together (B)?

4 Family gathering: a quick hello and food (A) or talk with everyone (B)?

FAMILY · MAIN DISCUSSION

Family Events — Quick Photos or Full Program?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

가족 행사는 잠깐 사진만 찍고 빠져도 되는지, 끝까지 프로그램에 참여해야 하는지에서 생각보다 의견이 갈려요. 가족에게는 함께 있었다는 사실 자체가 중요할 수 있지만, 참여하는 사람 입장에서는 체력, 시간, 취향이 모두 걸려 있어요. 특히 긴 행사일수록 마음은 있어도 끝까지 집중하기 어렵죠. 사진 한 장으로 추억을 남기는 것과 시간을 충분히 함께 보내는 것 사이에서 각자의 예의 기준이 드러나요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Family events often create a quiet question: is showing up enough, or should you stay for the whole program? When your schedule is tight or the event is not really your style, taking a few photos and greeting everyone can feel like enough. But family members may see your presence as a sign of care, especially if the event happens only once a year. The hard part is that duty, love, time, and energy are all mixed together. A short visit can be sincere, and a long visit can still feel distant. The real question is what kind of participation makes family feel respected — without making the day feel forced. Family expectations can feel caring and pressuring at the same time. Money, holidays, distance, marriage, and work often mean different things across generations. In Korea, family decisions often carry both practical needs and emotional meaning at once.

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

show up — (얼굴을) 비추다, 참석하다

leave early — 일찍 자리를 뜨다

stay until the end — 끝까지 있다

read the room — 분위기를 살피다

head out — 이만 가 보다

set boundaries — 선을 긋다

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

Honestly, I think it's fine — __, as long as __.

The way I see it, what matters is __, not __.

What really makes it worth it is __.

It comes down to __ — when __, time goes fast.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a photo-taker or a let's-just-be-here person at family gatherings?
- 2 When was the last time you went to a family event, and what kind was it — a birthday, a holiday, a memorial?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick at a family event: the food, the catching-up, or the planned activities?
- 4 What's your usual move when a family event starts running long?

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. Is it okay to take a few photos and leave a family event after two hours, or does that feel like you came just for the proof?

↳ Honestly, I think it's fine — __, as long as __.

↳ The way I see it, what matters is __, not __.

Q2. What makes staying until the end feel meaningful instead of just tiring?

↳ What really makes it worth it is __.

↳ It comes down to __ — when __, time goes fast.

Q3. Do you act differently at events for your parents, your relatives, and your siblings? How?

↳ It depends on who's there, but usually I __.

↳ Compared to with my siblings, with my parents I feel __ because __.

Q4. How would you leave a family event early without sounding cold?

↳ The trick is to __ and then __.

↳ What I'd probably do is say __ and thank __.

Q5. Where is your line between family duty and your own time and energy?

↳ My line is closer to __ because __.

↳ When I think about it, I put __ first, but I still need __.