

01 SMALL TALK

Do you usually pay with cash or card these days?

Do you check your bank app a lot, or try not to look at it?

What's one small thing you bought recently that made you happy?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

- 1 ~~"My salary is small."~~
✓ "My salary is low. / I don't make much."
급여는 크기(small)가 아니라 높낮이(low/high)로 표현해요.
- 2 ~~"My parents always say me to save money."~~
✓ "My parents always tell me to save money."
'~하라고 말하다'는 say me가 아니라 tell me예요. say 뒤엔 사람을 바로 못 붙여요.
- 3 ~~"I gave up to save money."~~
✓ "I gave up saving money. / I gave up on saving."
give up 뒤엔 to부정사가 아니라 -ing 형태를 써요.

03 오늘의 워업

각 질문에 A 또는 B 손가락으로 표시. 마음에 드는 거 하나만 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Quick Choice (5분)

- 1 When family talks about your money, is it usually (A) helpful or (B) too much?
- 2 Who do you ask about money first — (A) family or (B) friends?
- 3 For saving and spending, do you like (A) someone gives you the answer or (B) you find it out together?
- 4 Your money choices are (A) okay to share with family or (B) private?

FAMILY · MAIN DISCUSSION

Family Money Advice — Helpful or Too Much?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

가족이 돈 관리 이야기를 꺼내면 필요한 조언처럼 들릴 수도 있고, 잔소리처럼 느껴질 수도 있어요. 돈 이야기는 실제로 중요하지만, 가족이 말하는 순간 내 선택을 평가받는 느낌이 들기 쉽죠. 특히 저축, 투자, 빚, 지출 같은 주제는 도움과 간섭의 경계가 흐려요. 중요한 건 정보 자체보다 말하는 방식이에요. '같이 알아보자'는 분위기면 도움이 되지만, 이미 정답을 정해놓고 말하면 방어적으로 들릴 수 있어요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Money advice from family can be useful and uncomfortable at the same time. Parents may bring it up because they want to help with saving, loans, or future plans. But when the advice comes from family, it can also feel like judgment. Even good information may sound like, "You are not handling your life well." The difference often comes from tone. A suggestion is easier to accept when it leaves room for your own decision, but it feels pushy when the answer is already decided for you. Money is practical, but family talks about money are also emotional. Money, work, marriage, and independence often mean different things across generations, so the same words can land very differently.

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

they mean well — 악의는 없다, 선의로 그러다

hard to shake — (느낌을) 떨쳐내기 힘들다

set boundaries — 선을 긋다 I'm all ears — 귀 쫑긋, 잘 들을게

brush it off — 대수롭지 않게 넘기다

it goes both ways — 양쪽 다 해당된다, 반반이다

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

Most of the time, I feel ___ because ___.

It depends on who is talking, but usually ___.

Honestly, ___ is the hardest to talk about — ___.

The thing is, when we talk about ___, I feel ___.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'share every money decision with my family' or a 'keep my finances private' person?
- 2 When was the last time YOU gave a family member money advice? What was it about?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick: who in your family gives you the most money advice — your parents, your siblings, or other relatives?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often does your family bring up money or budgeting when you talk?

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. When your family gives you money advice, do you usually feel helped or judged? Why?

↳ Most of the time, I feel ___ because ___.

↳ It depends on who is talking, but usually ___.

Q2. Which money topic is hardest to talk about with family — saving, debt, or spending? Why?

↳ Honestly, ___ is the hardest to talk about — ___.

↳ The thing is, when we talk about ___, I feel ___.

Q3. What makes advice feel like help instead of nagging? Give one thing that really works.

↳ What really works for me is when ___.

↳ The way I see it, advice feels like help when ___.

Q4. Should family ask before giving serious money advice, or is it fine to just say it?

↳ I lean more toward ___ because ___.

↳ If it's a serious topic, ___ — but for small things, ___.

Q5. Have you ever ignored advice at first and later found out it was useful? What happened?

↳ Looking back, ___ taught me that ___.

↳ There was one time when ___, and later ___.