

01 SMALL TALK

How has your week been so far?

Did you do anything fun recently?

What's your favorite season in Busan?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"I want to go travel."~~

✓ "I want to travel. / I want to go on a trip."

'go travel'은 동사 두 개가 붙어서 어색해요. 'travel'만 쓰거나 'go on a trip'으로 풀어요.

② ~~"The schedule is very tight."~~

✓ "My schedule's really packed."

문법은 맞지만 번역체로 딱딱해요. 'my schedule's packed'가 훨씬 자연스러워요.

③ ~~"I am boring today."~~

✓ "I'm bored today."

'boring'은 남을 지루하게 만드는 것, 'bored'가 내가 지루함을 느끼는 거예요. 한 글자 차이로 뜻이 달라져요.

03 오늘의 워업

앉은 자리에서 손가락으로 A 또는 B를 가리키며 한 명씩 빠르게 답해요. 이유는 딱 한 마디만 붙여요.

WARM-UP

This or That · 빠른 5라운드

1

Front row VS Back row

2

Take photos VS Just watch

3

Arrive early VS Arrive on time

4

Big crowd VS Quiet spot

5

Beach view VS Rooftop café

TRAVEL · MAIN DISCUSSION

Gwangalli Drone Show — Front Row or Casual Walk?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

광안리 드론쇼처럼 짧고 강한 볼거리는 '기다리는 방식'에서 성향이 갈려요. 좋은 자리에서 제대로 보고 싶은 사람도 있고, 굳이 일찍 가서 자리 잡기보다 산책하다가 멀리서 봐도 충분하다고 느끼는 사람도 있어요. 사진을 남기고 싶은지, 사람 많은 분위기를 즐기는지, 끝나고 빠져나오는 동선까지 생각하는지에 따라 선택이 달라져요. 예쁜 장면 하나를 위해 얼마나 기다릴 수 있는지가 핵심이에요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Short city events like a drone show create a funny kind of choice. The show may last only a few minutes, but getting a good view can take much longer. Some people love arriving early, picking a spot, taking photos, and feeling the crowd grow around them. Others want to keep the night easy: walk along the beach, watch from far away, and leave before everyone moves at once. Neither choice is wrong. It depends on what you want most — the best view, the easiest plan, the photo, or just the mood of being there with other people.

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

grab a good spot — 좋은 자리를 잡다

show up — (가서) 도착하다, 나타나다

worth the wait — 기다릴 만한 가치가 있다

beat the crowd — 사람 몰리기 전에 빠지다

take a ton of photos — 사진을 엄청 많이 찍다

I'm leaning toward ~ — ~쪽으로 마음이 기운다

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

I'd say at least 30 minutes early, because ____.

It depends on how popular the event is, but usually I arrive ____.

I lean more toward the front row because ____.

Compared to watching from far away, being up close feels ____.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'see it live in person' or a 'catch the clips online later' person for big shows like the Gwangalli drone show?
- 2 When was the last time you went out at night just to see something — fireworks, a light show, or a drone show?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick: go alone, go with friends, or go on a date to a beach drone show?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you go to outdoor night events like festivals, beach shows, or fireworks?

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. For a short event like a drone show, how early would you arrive to get a good spot?

↳ I'd say at least 30 minutes early, because ____.

↳ It depends on how popular the event is, but usually I arrive ____.

Q2. Front row in the crowd, or watching from far away — which do you choose, and why?

↳ I lean more toward the front row because ____.

↳ Compared to watching from far away, being up close feels ____.

Q3. What ruins this kind of event the fastest for you — big crowds, bad weather, or the slow exit afterward?

↳ The thing that ruins it fastest for me is ____.

↳ Honestly, ____ kills the mood — but I can still handle ____.

Q4. Does getting a good photo make the long wait feel worth it, or do you just want to watch?

↳ The way I see it, a good photo ____.

↳ It really comes down to whether ____.

Q5. What would make you say, 'I'm so glad I came early'?

↳ What would make me say that is ____.

↳ When I think about it, I'm happiest when ____.