

01 SMALL TALK

Do you use any AI tools in your daily life — for work, study, or just random questions?

When was the last time an app saved you a lot of time on a boring task?

For boring tasks, do you like to do them by hand, or let a tool do them for you?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"I have a lot of stress."~~

✓ "I'm really stressed out."

stress는 동사 'have'와 안 써요. 'stressed out'이나 'under a lot of stress'가 자연스러워요.

② ~~"My hobby is watching Netflix."~~

✓ "I watch a lot of Netflix in my free time."

'My hobby is~'는 교과서 직역체예요. 'in my free time'이나 'I'm into ~'로 풀어 말해요.

③ ~~"I want to healing this weekend."~~

✓ "I want to relax and recharge this weekend."

'healing'은 한국식 표현이에요. 영어에선 'relax / recharge / unwind'를 써요.

03 오늘의 워업

리더 또는 서포터가 본인 관련 3개 문장 (2개 진실, 1개 거짓) 읽음. 멤버가 거짓 맞히기. 그다음 다음 사람.

WARM-UP

Two Truths, One Lie (8분)

1 I once used an AI tool to finish a work task in half the time.

2 I have written about my AI skills on my resume or cover letter.

3 I taught a coworker or friend how to use an AI tool for their job.

WORK · MAIN DISCUSSION

AI Skills on a Resume — Basic Use or Real Skill?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

이력서나 자소서에서 AI 활용 능력을 쓸 때는 어떻게 보여줄지가 중요해졌어요. 요즘은 'AI를 써봤다'는 말만으로는 부족하고, 실제 업무에서 시간을 줄였는지, 결과물을 개선했는지, 반복 작업을 자동화했는지처럼 구체적인 경험이 중요해요. 그래서 AI 스킬은 애매한 선이 있어요. 문서 정리나 아이디어 정리 정도도 실무 감각으로 볼 수 있지만, 누구나 해본 기본 사용처럼 보일 수도 있어요. 반대로 자동화, 데이터 정리, 콘텐츠 제작처럼 결과가 분명한 경험은 포트폴리오로 설명하기 쉬워요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

AI skills on a resume are getting harder to define, because many people have used AI at least a little. Writing 'I can use AI' may sound useful, but employers may want to know what that really means in practice. The difference is usually in the evidence. Using AI to summarize a document, draft ideas, or polish writing can help, but it may still look basic if there is no clear result. Building a workflow, automating repeated tasks, improving a report, or making a portfolio piece shows a more concrete skill. The line is between using a tool sometimes and being able to explain how it improved real work. AI skills feel meaningful when someone can show a clear use case, not just name the tool. A resume sounds stronger when it explains the task, the workflow, the result, and what got better because AI was used. Without that evidence, 'AI skill' can feel like a vague keyword.

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

count as a skill — 스킬로 인정되다

save hours — 시간을 많이 아끼다

before and after — 전후 비교

stand out — 눈에 띄다

show, don't tell — 말 말고 보여주기

walk someone through it — 차근차근 설명하다

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

I'd say it counts as a real skill, because ____.

It really comes down to how well you ____.

The clearest proof would be ____, since ____.

If I had to show it, I'd point to ____.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'type-it-into-AI-first' or a 'figure-it-out-myself-first' person when you start a work task?
- 2 When was the last time you used AI to finish a real task at work or school — and what was it?
- 3 Quick — if you had to put just one AI skill on your resume today, would it be writing, summarizing, or automating?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how confident would you feel writing 'AI skills' on your resume right now?

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. Does using ChatGPT to organize documents count as a real skill, or is it just basic use?

↳ I'd say it counts as a real skill, because ____.

↳ It really comes down to how well you ____.

Q2. How could someone really prove that AI improved their work?

↳ The clearest proof would be ____, since ____.

↳ If I had to show it, I'd point to ____.

Q3. Where is the line between basic AI use and a real workplace skill?

↳ The way I see it, the line is ____.

↳ Compared to just asking a question, a real skill is ____.

Q4. If you made an AI portfolio, what result would you want to show — time saved, better quality, or a finished project?

↳ I'd rather show ____, because ____.

↳ Out of the three, ____, feels the strongest to me, since ____.

Q5. At work, do people who use AI well look more competent to you? Why or why not?

↳ Honestly, they do look more competent — ____.

↳ It depends on the person, but usually ____.