

01 SMALL TALK

In your group chat, who usually texts first to make a plan — you or someone else?

When you order food with friends, who decides the menu?

Do you like making the plan, or do you prefer when someone else makes it?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"My company is very welfare."~~

✓ "My company has great benefits."

'welfare'는 보통 정부 복지를 뜻해요. 직장 복지는 'benefits'나 'perks'로 써요.

2 ~~"I resigned my job."~~

✓ "I quit my job. / I resigned."

'resign'은 목적어를 바로 못 받아요. 'quit my job'이나 'resign from my job'이 자연스러워요.

3 ~~"I want to develop myself."~~

✓ "I want to grow. / I want to improve myself."

'develop myself'는 콩글리시예요. 'grow', 'improve myself'가 훨씬 자연스러워요.

03 오늘의 워업

각 라운드 손가락으로 A 또는 B. 한 라운드마다 한 명 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Would You Rather (5분)

1

Have a boss who tells you exactly what to do

VS

Have a boss who asks "What do you think?"

2

Get honest feedback that feels a bit harsh

VS

Get kind feedback that is a bit unclear

3

Work in a flat team where everyone speaks up

VS

Work in a team where one strong leader decides fast

4

Have a leader who is friendly and close to the team

VS

Have a leader who keeps work and personal life separate

Leadership Styles — Korean Workplace or Global Workplace?

BACKGROUND

한국 직장와 글로벌 직장에서의 리더십이 다르게 느껴지는 이유는 말투, 권한, 피드백 방식이 다르기 때문이에요. 어떤 곳에서는 리더가 방향을 정하고 책임지는 사람이 되고, 어떤 곳에서는 질문을 던지고 팀원이 스스로 말하게 하는 사람이 되죠. 수평적인 리더십이 항상 편한 것도 아니고, 강한 리더십이 항상 나쁜 것도 아니에요. 중요한 건 팀이 불안하지 않게 일할 수 있는 명확함과 존중이에요.

READ BEFORE WE TALK

Leadership styles feel different across workplaces because expectations around authority, feedback, and communication are different. In some teams, a leader is expected to decide quickly, give direction, and protect the group from confusion. In other teams, a leader asks questions, invites opinions, and lets people own the work. Neither style is automatically better. Too much hierarchy can silence people, while too much openness can feel vague if no one decides. Good leadership usually combines clarity and respect. The team needs to know what matters, who decides, how feedback is given, and whether people can speak freely without being punished. Career choices often carry two feelings at once: wanting growth and wanting stability. A step that looks brave to one person may look risky to another.

WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

climb the corporate ladder — 승진하다, 출세하다

hand in my notice — 사직서를 내다

a dead-end job — 성장 가능성 없는 직장

wear many hats — 여러 역할을 동시에 하다

have my back — 내 편을 들어주다

call the shots — 결정권을 쥐다

TRY THESE PHRASES

Looking back, the best leader I had taught me that ____.

What made the difference was ____ — the worst one never did that.

Honestly, rank starts to bother me when ____.

It gets uncomfortable the moment ____.

EASY ENTRY

1 Are you more of a 'just give me the goal' person or a 'walk me through every step' person when a leader hands you a task?

2 When was the last time you led something small — a group project, a trip plan, or even picking where everyone eats?

3 Quick — if you had to pick one thing in a boss: clear directions, honest feedback, or always having your back?

4 Finish this: 'When I talk to someone senior at work or school, I usually ____.'

MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. Think about the best boss or teacher you've had and the worst one. What one thing made the difference?

↳ Looking back, the best leader I had taught me that ____.

↳ What made the difference was ____ — the worst one never did that.

Q2. When does rank or hierarchy start to feel uncomfortable to you at work or school?

↳ Honestly, rank starts to bother me when ____.

↳ It gets uncomfortable the moment ____.

Q3. Would you rather have a warm leader or a very clear leader? When would you change your answer?

↳ I lean more toward a ____ leader because ____.

↳ It depends on the situation, but usually I'd pick ____.

Q4. If a teammate makes a real mistake, should a leader focus on the person or on the system? How would you handle it?

↳ The way I see it, a leader should focus on ____ first because ____.

↳ If it happened on my team, I would ____.

Q5. Can a team be 'too flat'? When does freedom turn into nobody actually deciding?

↳ Yes, I'd say a team can be too flat because ____.

↳ The thing is, freedom turns into chaos once ____.