

01 SMALL TALK

How are you feeling today — tired or full of energy?

Did you drink coffee today? How many cups?

What time do you usually get home after work?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

- 1 ~~"I want to develop myself."~~
✓ "I want to grow. / I want to better myself."
사람한테 develop을 쓰면 쿡글리시예요. 자기 성장은 grow나 better myself라고 해요.
- 2 ~~"My company is very welfare."~~
✓ "My company has great benefits."
welfare는 형용사가 아니예요. 회사 복지는 benefits나 perks라고 해요.
- 3 ~~"I resigned my job."~~
✓ "I quit my job. / I resigned."
일상에선 quit my job이 제일 자연스러워요. resign은 보통 목적어 없이 써요.

Side Learning After Work — Coding, English, or Design?

BACKGROUND

퇴근 후 사이드 학습을 한다면 코딩, 영어, 디자인 중 무엇을 선택할지 고민될 수 있어요. 각각 좋아 보이지만 실제로는 시간과 에너지가 한정되어 있어서, 하나를 고르는 순간 다른 기회는 미루게 되죠. 코딩은 실용적인 기술처럼 보이고, 영어는 커리어 범위를 넓혀주고, 디자인은 포트폴리오로 보여주기 좋아요. 중요한 건 유행보다 내 일과 연결되는지, 그리고 퇴근 후 지친 상태에서도 계속할 수 있는지에요.

READ BEFORE WE TALK

Side learning after work sounds productive, but it fights with real tiredness. Coding, English, design, AI tools, and certificates all look useful from the outside. The hard part is choosing one path and staying with it long enough to get better. Coding may open technical options, English may grow your career range, and design may give you something to show. But after work, motivation alone is not enough. The best choice is usually the one that connects to a real goal and can fit into a tired weekday. Learning just for image fades quickly; learning with a clear use case has a better chance of lasting. Career choices also carry two feelings at once: wanting growth and wanting safety. A choice that looks brave to one person may look risky to another.

EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a YouTube-tutorial learner or a sign-up-for-a-real-class learner when you pick up a skill after work?
- 2 When was the last time you opened a learning app or online course after work — and did you actually finish it?
- 3 Quick — if you had to study after work, when works best: right after dinner, late at night, or weekends only?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you actually sit down to learn a new skill after work in a normal week?

MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. If you had time and energy after work, would you pick coding, English, design, or something else — and why?

I'd lean toward ___ because ___.

Honestly, it would be ___ — ___.

Q2. The reading says learning just for image fades fast, but learning with a clear use case lasts. Do you agree?

I'd say that's true, because ___.

When I think about it, ___ really lasts longer.

Q3. What makes side learning stop after a few weeks — being too tired, seeing no results, or life getting busy?

Most of the time, it stops because ___.

In my case, ___ — and then I give up.

Q4. Do visible projects motivate you more than certificates? Why?

I lean more toward ___ because ___.

Compared to ___, ___ feels more real to me.

Q5. How would you choose just one skill instead of trying everything at once?

What helps me decide is ___.

It really comes down to ___.
