

01 SMALL TALK

When you get a gift, do you like cash better, or something the person picked for you?

Do you usually buy gifts early, or at the last minute?

Have you ever gotten a gift you never really used? What was it?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"My parent is very strict."~~

✓ "My parents are very strict. / My dad is really strict."

부모님 두 분을 가리킬 땐 복수 parents가 자연스러워요. 한 명은 보통 mom/dad라고 해요.

② ~~"My father is scary."~~

✓ "My dad can be pretty intimidating. / My dad is kind of strict."

scary는 공포 영화 느낌이라 사람 성격엔 어색해요. intimidating(위압적)이나 strict(엄격)가 자연스러워요.

③ ~~"I am living with my family since born."~~

✓ "I've lived with my family my whole life. / I've lived with my family since I was born."

since는 현재완료(I've lived)와 같이 써요. since 뒤에는 I was born처럼 주어+동사가 필요해요.

Family Month Gifts — Cash, Vouchers, or Personal Choices?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

가정의 달 선물은 실용성과 마음 사이에서 자주 갈려요. 현금이나 상품권은 받는 사람이 원하는 곳에 쓸 수 있어서 가장 안전하지만, 너무 간단해 보여서 성의가 부족해 보일까 걱정되기도 해요. 반대로 직접 고른 선물은 기억에 남을 수 있지만 취향을 빗나가면 애매해질 수 있죠. 결국 좋은 선물은 가격보다, 상대가 실제로 편하게 받을 수 있는지, 그리고 주는 사람의 마음이 자연스럽게 느껴지는지에 달려 있어요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Family gifts often sit between practicality and emotion. Cash or vouchers are useful because the receiver can choose what they actually need. They are also safe when tastes are hard to guess. But some people worry that practical gifts look too easy, especially during family months when the gift is supposed to show care. A personal gift can feel warmer and more memorable, but it can also miss the person's taste. The best choice depends on the relationship, the occasion, and the family's style. A good gift does not have to be big; it has to feel considerate without creating awkward pressure. Family expectations can feel caring and pressuring at the same time. In Korea, family decisions often carry both practical needs and emotional meanings at once.
