

01 SMALL TALK

What did you have for breakfast today?

What's your go-to drink at a cafe?

Do you have a sweet tooth, or do you like salty snacks more?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"The food is very delicious."~~

✓ "The food is really good."

'delicious'에 이미 '아주 맛있다'는 뜻이 있어서 'very'는 어색해요. 일상에선 'really good'을 더 자주 써요.

② ~~"Let me service this to you."~~

✓ "This one's on the house."

한국식 '서비스(공짜)'는 영어 'service'에 그 뜻이 없어요. 가게가 공짜로 줄 땐 'on the house'.

③ ~~"I want to eat lunch outside."~~

✓ "I want to eat out for lunch."

'eat outside'는 야외에서 먹는다는 뜻이에요. '외식하다'는 'eat out'.

03 오늘의 워업

각 라운드 손가락으로 A 또는 B. 한 라운드마다 한 명 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Would You Rather (5분)

1

Wait one hour in line for the viral dessert everyone talks about

VS

Grab a similar dessert next door with no line at all

2

Try a trending dessert on opening day before any reviews

VS

Wait a few weeks until friends say it's really good

3

Pay double for the famous original shop

VS

Pay half for a copy version near your home

4

Take photos and post it first, then eat

VS

Skip the photos and just eat it while it's fresh

FOOD · MAIN DISCUSSION

Viral Desserts — Join the Line or Wait It Out?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

숯폼에서 계속 보이는 디저트는 이미 맛을 본 것처럼 익숙한데, 막상 직접 먹을지는 또 다른 문제예요. 오픈런을 하거나 줄을 서면 유행 한가운데 있는 느낌이 들지만, 기대가 커진 만큼 실망도 커질 수 있어요. 특히 디저트는 가격이 작아 보여도 여러 번 사 먹으면 꽤 부담이 되고, 사진이나 후기 때문에 더 맛있어 보이는 경우도 많아요. 새로운 걸 바로 따라가고 싶은 마음과 조금 기다렸다가 검증하고 싶은 마음 사이에서 기준이 갈려요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Viral desserts are easy to want before you even taste them. Short videos, limited flavors, cute packaging, and people posting reactions can make a dessert feel familiar and exciting at the same time. But deciding to join the line is different from just liking the idea. The price may be small, but the waiting time, the hype, and the chance of disappointment all matter. Some people enjoy being early to a trend because the experience is fun. Others prefer to wait until the reviews calm down. A dessert trend is really a small test of curiosity, patience, and how much online buzz affects our everyday choices. Food talk usually starts with taste, but the real decision often includes price, waiting time, portion size, location, mood, and who you are eating with.

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

on the house — (가게에서) 서비스로 주는 것

overhyped — 소문만큼 좋지 않은

worth the wait — 기다린 보람이 있는

a hole in the wall — 간판 없지만 맛있는 가게

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

Honestly, I'd rather try it fast because ____.

It depends on the dessert, but usually I wait for ____.

I'd say about ____ minutes, as long as ____.

The most I could handle is ____, because ____.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'snap a photo first' or a 'just dig in' dessert person?
- 2 When was the last time you bought a dessert just because it was all over your feed?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick one trendy dessert to try this week: bingsu, a fancy croissant, or a giant cookie?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you visit a cafe just to try a dessert you saw online?

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. When a dessert goes viral, do you try it fast or wait for honest reviews?

↳ Honestly, I'd rather try it fast because ____.

↳ It depends on the dessert, but usually I wait for ____.

Q2. How long would you wait in line for a dessert you have only seen online?

↳ I'd say about ____ minutes, as long as ____.

↳ The most I could handle is ____, because ____.

Q3. Taste, price, waiting time, atmosphere — which one matters most to you, and why?

↳ What matters most to me is ____, since ____.

↳ It really comes down to ____ in the end.

Q4. Have you ever tried a viral food and felt it was overhyped? What happened?

↳ Looking back, there was this ____ that ____.

↳ Once, I tried ____ and it turned out ____.

Q5. What price feels too high for a small cafe or convenience-store dessert?

↳ Anything over ____ feels too high for ____.

↳ The way I see it, ____ is my limit because ____.