

01 SMALL TALK

How many hours do you think you spend on your phone each day?

What's the first app you open in the morning?

Where is your phone right now — on the table, in your pocket, or in your bag?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"My hobby is watching Netflix."~~

✓ "I watch a lot of Netflix. / I'm really into Netflix these days."

'My hobby is ~'는 교과서 자기소개 느낌이라 어색해요. 'I'm into ~'나 'I love ~ing'로 풀어요.

② ~~"I want to healing this weekend."~~

✓ "I want to unwind this weekend. / I just need to recharge."

'healing'은 콩글리시예요. 영어에선 relax, unwind, recharge 같은 동사를 써요.

③ ~~"I have a lot of stress."~~

✓ "I'm really stressed out. / I've been under a lot of stress lately."

'have stress'보다 형용사 'stressed (out)'을 훨씬 자주 써요.

03 오늘의 워업

"쉬는 시간을 가장 많이 빼앗아 가는 것"을 기준으로 각자 1-4위로 순위 매기고 1위만 말하기. 다른 사람 의견 들으며 자기 순위 한 번 더 정리.

WARM-UP

Rank Them (5분)

1. Notifications popping up all day
2. Short videos (Reels, Shorts, TikTok)
3. Busy group chats (KakaoTalk)
4. Shopping apps and news feeds

Digital Minimalism — Peaceful Reset or Impossible Plan?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

디지털 미니멀리즘은 폰을 완전히 끊자는 이야기라기보다, 내가 무엇에 시간을 빼앗기고 있는지 다시 정리해보자는 흐름에 가까워요. 알림, 숏폼, 단톡방, 쇼핑앱, 뉴스 피드가 계속 열려 있으면 쉬는 시간도 쉬는 시간처럼 느껴지지 않을 때가 있어요. 하지만 현실적으로 폰 없이 사는 건 쉽지 않아요. 일, 약속, 결제, 길 찾기, 연락이 모두 폰에 들어가 있으니까요. 그래서 중요한 건 극단적으로 끊는 게 아니라, 내가 다시 선택권을 가져오는 정도를 정하는 일이에요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

Digital minimalism is not about giving up your phone completely. It is more about noticing what keeps stealing your attention: notifications, short-form videos, group chats, shopping apps, and the habit of checking without a reason. The problem is that modern life also runs through the phone. Work messages, plans, maps, payments, and family contact all live there. So the real question is not 'Can you live without a phone?' It is 'How much control can you take back without making your life harder?' Small everyday choices often show our bigger standards about time, focus, and rest. The right answer changes from person to person.

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

check my phone right away — 폰을 바로 확인하다

turn off notifications — 알림을 끄다

old habits are hard to break — 오랜 습관은 고치기 어렵다

stay on top of ~ — ~을 놓치지 않고 챙기다

go cold turkey — 단번에 끊다 set boundaries — 선을 긋다

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

Honestly, my notifications ___ — but ___.

Most of the time, ___ on my phone.

In my case, mornings feel ___ when ___.

I'd say ___ because ___.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you check your weekly screen time report?
- 2 Quick — if you had to pick: right next to your pillow, across the room, or in another room — where does your phone sleep at night?
- 3 Are you more of a 'phone face-up on the table' or 'phone in my pocket' person when you're out with friends?
- 4 Finish this: 'When I have five free minutes, I usually ___.'

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

- Q1. Do you think notifications do more harm than good? Tell me about your own phone.

↳ Honestly, my notifications ___ — but ___.

↳ Most of the time, ___ on my phone.
- Q2. Some people say a phone-free morning makes the whole day better. Would that work for you, or do you need to check your phone right away?

↳ In my case, mornings feel ___ when ___.

↳ I'd say ___ because ___.
- Q3. If you tried to use your phone less, would you go all-in (full detox) or make small changes (soft reset)? Why?

↳ If I had to choose, I'd go with ___ because ___.

↳ The thing is, ___ for me.
- Q4. Being always reachable — is it a burden or a convenience for you? Share a real example.

↳ It depends on the situation, but usually ___.

↳ Looking back, one time ___ taught me ___.
- Q5. Which app would be hardest to delete for one week, and what would you miss first?

↳ The hardest one would be ___ because ___.

↳ What I'd miss first is ___.