

01 SMALL TALK

Did you do anything fun last weekend?

Do you usually take photos when you go out?

Is there a place near you that always has a long line?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

① ~~"I bought a goods at the pop-up."~~

✓ "I bought some merch at the pop-up."

'굿즈'는 영어로 merch 또는 merchandise예요. goods는 보통 복수로 쓰고, 작은 기념품은 merch가 자연스러워요.

② ~~"Let's take a photo for the SNS."~~

✓ "Let's take a photo for social media."

SNS는 콩글리시예요. 영어로는 social media나 Insta를 써요.

③ ~~"This place is so hot place these days."~~

✓ "This place is really popular these days."

'핫플'을 hot place로 옮기면 어색해요. popular나 trending을 쓰세요.

03 오늘의 워업

What makes a pop-up store worth visiting for you? 각자 1-4위로 순위 매기고 1위만 말하기. 다른 사람 의견 들으며 자기 순위 한 번 더 정리.

WARM-UP

Rank Them (5분)

1. A limited item you can't buy anywhere else
2. A cool photo spot for social media
3. A fun hands-on experience or activity
4. Free samples or a special free gift

LIFESTYLE · MAIN DISCUSSION

Pop-Up Stores — Worth Visiting or Just Photo Bait?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

팝업스토어는 물건을 사러 가는 곳이면서, 동시에 사진·굿즈·체험·줄 서는 분위기까지 함께 소비하는 공간이에요. 어떤 사람은 한정판이나 현장 분위기 때문에 일부러 찾아가고, 어떤 사람은 결국 사진 찍고 굿즈 사게 만드는 마케팅이라고 느껴요. 팝업이 재미있으려면 브랜드가 좋아야 할 뿐 아니라, 그 공간에 간 이유가 분명해야 해요. 그냥 예쁜 배경인지, 진짜 기억에 남는 경험인지가 기준이 돼요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

A pop-up store is not just a temporary shop. It is also a small event built around photos, limited goods, and the feeling of being there before it disappears. It can be exciting when you already love the brand, or when the space gives you something to do besides buying. But it can also feel like 'photo bait' when the experience is shallow and the products are not that interesting. So the real question is simple: what makes a pop-up worth leaving the house for? Is it the item, the atmosphere, the friends you go with, or the feeling that you caught something limited in time?

💡 WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

worth it — 그럴 가치가 있는

photo bait — 사진 찍게 만드는 미끼

fall for it — (속아) 넘어가다

a limited edition — 한정판

end up buying — 결국 사게 되다

see right through it — 속셈을 다 알아채다

🗣️ TRY THESE PHRASES

What really pulls me out of the house is __, because __.

It depends on the day, but usually __ matters most to me.

It starts to feel real when __, not just __.

The way I see it, a pop-up becomes an experience once __.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'go in and browse' person or a 'just peek from outside' person when you pass a pop-up store?
- 2 When was the last time you walked into a pop-up store? What brand was it?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick: the goods, the snacks, or the free samples — what do you usually walk out with from a pop-up?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you actually buy something when you visit a pop-up store?

🗣️ MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. What makes a pop-up worth leaving the house for — the product, the atmosphere, the friends, or catching something limited?

↳ What really pulls me out of the house is __, because __.

↳ It depends on the day, but usually __ matters most to me.

Q2. When does a pop-up feel like a real experience instead of just a store?

↳ It starts to feel real when __, not just __.

↳ The way I see it, a pop-up becomes an experience once __.

Q3. How long would you wait in line if you might not even buy anything? Where's your limit?

↳ I'd wait about __, but my limit is __.

↳ Honestly, __ — after that, I just give up and leave.

Q4. Do you enjoy spaces that are clearly built for social media photos, or do they feel empty to you?

↳ I lean more toward enjoying them, because __.

↳ Compared to a normal store, those photo spots feel __ to me.

Q5. What makes a pop-up feel too commercial or fake to you?

↳ It feels fake to me when __.

↳ What turns me off is __, especially if __.