

01 SMALL TALK

When you get a text, do you usually reply fast or slowly?

Do you prefer texting or calling someone?

Which app do you open the most every day?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

1 ~~"We meeting for 3 months."~~

✓ "We've been seeing each other for 3 months."

시작부터 지금까지 이어지는 기간은 현재완료진행으로, 연애 맥락에선 'see each other'가 자연스러워요.

2 ~~"I have a some on going."~~

✓ "I'm kind of seeing someone."

'썸'을 직역한 'a some'은 영어에 없어요. 'kind of seeing someone'으로 풀어 주세요.

3 ~~"He gave me a big impression."~~

✓ "He made a strong impression on me."

인상은 'give'가 아니라 'make an impression', 크기는 'big'이 아니라 'strong'을 써요.

03 오늘의 워업

각 라운드 손가락으로 A 또는 B. 한 라운드마다 한 명 짧게 이유.

WARM-UP

Would You Rather (5분)

1

Get a quick 'ok' in one minute

VS

Get a warm, kind message after three hours

2

They reply fast but only short words

VS

They reply slow but ask you real questions

3

Many short texts all day long

VS

One long, sweet 'good night' text

4

They always reply fast but never text first

VS

They reply slow but always start the chat

Texting in a Situationship — Reply Speed or Message Quality?

BACKGROUND

썸에서 답장 속도와 메시지 내용은 둘 다 신경 쓰이지만, 사람마다 중요하게 보는 포인트가 달라요. 빠른 답장이 관심처럼 느껴지는 사람도 있고, 느려도 내용이 다정하고 구체적이면 충분하다고 느끼는 사람도 있어요. 문제는 상대의 생활 패턴을 잘 모르는 단계에서 작은 신호를 크게 해석하게 된다는 점이에요. 답장이 늦어도 이유가 있는 건지, 내용이 짧아도 마음이 있는 건지 판단하기 어려워서 오해가 생기기 쉬워요.

READ BEFORE WE TALK

In a situationship, texting can feel more important than it should. A fast reply may look like interest, but it can also just mean work, low energy, or phone habits. Message quality matters too: a late reply can still feel warm if it answers well, asks a question back, and keeps the talk going. The hard part is that people read small signals before they really know each other's daily life. A short message might mean 'I'm not interested,' or it might just mean 'I had a busy day.' Different texting habits can change the mood before anyone says anything directly. Dating standards are not only about romance. They also show how people think about fairness, attention, pride, and feeling safe. The same message can look caring to one person and careless to another, because everyone reads small signals through their own past.

WORDS YOU MIGHT NEED

reply right away — 바로 답하다

take your time — 천천히 하다

read into it — 과하게 해석하다

on their mind — 마음에 두고 있는

a deal-breaker — 절대 양보 못 하는 것

a red flag — 위험 신호

TRY THESE PHRASES

It really comes down to ___ for me, because ___.

Honestly, ___ matters more — a quick reply tells me ___.

It depends on the situation, but usually after ___ I start to ___.

In my case, there's a kind of limit — if ___, it begins to feel ___.

EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'one long paragraph' texter or a 'five short bubbles in a row' texter?
- 2 When was the last time you left someone on read — and was it on purpose?
- 3 Quick — if you had to pick: text, call, or voice message — how do you like to talk to someone you're into?
- 4 On a scale of 1 to 5, how often do you double-text when someone hasn't replied yet?

MAIN DISCUSSION

Q1. In early dating, do you care more about reply speed or message quality? Why?

↳ It really comes down to ___ for me, because ___.

↳ Honestly, ___ matters more — a quick reply tells me ___.

Q2. When you like someone, how late is too late for a reply? Is there a time limit for you?

↳ It depends on the situation, but usually after ___ I start to ___.

↳ In my case, there's a kind of limit — if ___, it begins to feel ___.

Q3. When does checking your phone for a reply become unhealthy?

↳ I'd say it becomes unhealthy when ___, because ___.

↳ The thing is, once it starts to ___, that's the line for me.

Q4. What texting habit makes you think, 'This person really cares about me'?

↳ What makes me feel they care is when they ___.

↳ When someone ___, that's when I think they really pay attention to me.

Q5. Should you tell someone directly about your texting style, or just let it grow naturally?

↳ I lean more toward telling them directly, because ___.

↳ The way I see it, ___ saves a lot of ___ later on.