

01 SMALL TALK

Do you check apps on your phone a lot, or only when you need to?

What is one small thing you bought last weekend?

Do you like saving things for later, or using them right away?

02 POP QUIZ — DOES THIS SOUND NATURAL?

- 1 ~~"I want to save my money for future."~~
✓ "I want to save up for the future."
일반적 의미라 'my'는 빼고, 'future' 앞엔 'the'가 필요해요. 'save up'이 더 자연스러워요.
- 2 ~~"I spend money to shopping."~~
✓ "I spend money on shopping."
'spend money on' + 명사/-ing'가 고정 패턴이에요. 'to'는 안 돼요.
- 3 ~~"The price is too expensive."~~
✓ "The price is too high. / It's too expensive."
'expensive'는 물건에, 'price'는 'high/low'로 써요.

KOSPI FOMO — Enter Now or Already Late?

🇰🇷 BACKGROUND

코스피가 많이 올랐다는 이야기를 들으면 지금이라도 들어가야 할지, 이미 늦었다고 봐야 할지 마음이 흔들릴 수 있어요. 친구의 수익 인증이나 경제 뉴스가 계속 보이면 가만히 있는 내 돈이 너무 조용해 보이죠. 하지만 시장이 오른다는 사실과 내가 감당할 수 있는 위험은 다른 문제예요. 투자 판단은 기회보다 불안에서 시작될 때 더 위험해질 수 있어요.

📖 READ BEFORE WE TALK

KOSPI FOMO often appears when market news and friends' profit screenshots arrive at the same time. A rising index can make cash or savings feel boring, even for someone who normally likes safety. But entering a market because it already moved can feel very different from entering with a plan. Some people see the market go up and want to join before it is too late. Others see the same chart and feel that the easy moment has already passed. The real question is not whether the market is good or bad. It is whether the decision comes from understanding, comparison, fear, or a clear personal rule. Profit screenshots, news headlines, and confident friends can make people feel late, even when they do not really understand the risk.

⚡ EASY ENTRY

- 1 Are you more of a 'check-the-stock-app-every-hour' investor or a 'set-it-and-forget-it' one?
- 2 Quick — if you had to pick: cash, stocks, or a savings account — where does most of your money sit right now?
- 3 When was the last time you almost jumped into something — a stock, a hot product — just because everyone was buzzing about it?
- 4 What's your usual move when you see the market trending all over the news — dig in, ignore it, or check your own account?
